25 April 1952

Mr. Malcolm A. Frost
Head, BBC Monitoring Service
Caversham Park
Reading, England

Dear Malcolm:

After receiving your letter of 21 April 1952, I re-read my letter of 13 March and can well understand your wonder at the point I was trying to make.

My letter was a poorly worded effort to apologize for not having kept you advised on FBIS personnel scheduled for assignment to Caversham. I also wanted to reassure you that if any of these people so assigned proved themselves objectionable in any way, I would take immediate remedial action.

There was nothing more to it than this, and I apologize for having appeared to be so devious in the other letter.

Sincerely,

STAT
